Invest in Precious Metals such as , Silver, Gold and Platinum with Greenstreet Advantage:
 When your purchase is financed or all cash for storage, all of the goods you ordered will be stored on your behalf at an independent bank or depository or you can take personal delivery at any time. The books and records of the clearing firm will identify you as the owner until your metal is sold or you take personal delivery. The metal held for you is not an asset of Greenstreet Advantage, the bank or depository, and as such, the security of your metal does not depend on their individual or collective financial condition.
